

You are invited to the Habitat Retro Party on Tuesday 19 October!

The Central Market is historically significant, rebuilt in 1938 in contemporary western building styles of the 1930s, when Bauhaus was prevailing. To celebrate the international influences of Bauhaus and the Art Deco movement, Habitat for Humanity is partnering with Designing Central to host an exclusive evening of networking. Guests are invited to wear vintage costumes from the 1920s and 1930s era and will enjoy free-flow drinks, canapés and a live classical music performance by local string quartet Mitis Chamber. We look forward to welcoming you to a fun evening of building connections in a beautiful building!

What will you be wearing to the Retro Party?

Not sure what to wear to our Art Deco inspired night of networking? Well good news for our male guests, your costume will be easy! Men in the 1920s and 1930s usually wore suits or tuxedos, waistcoats, hats and formal shoes. Women, however, were discovering a new freedom in fashion in that era, with below knee length drop-waist dresses with a loose, straight fit, or beaded evening dresses. Dresses with fringe details and qipao were very popular. Maybe you already have something in your wardrobe that you can adapt for the party! To accessorise your look with a long string of pearls, long gloves, sparkly earrings or a feather boa, why not visit Pottinger Street market to see what glamorous accessories you can find!

Would you like to have your hair, make-up or nails done professionally for this event? Glow is generously giving a special 20% discount to Habitat Retro Party guests for appointments made on Tuesday 19 October. Just mention 'Habitat' when you book your appointment, don't miss out on this wonderful offer!
